Alumni Association, Prasannadeb Women's College, Jalpaiguri

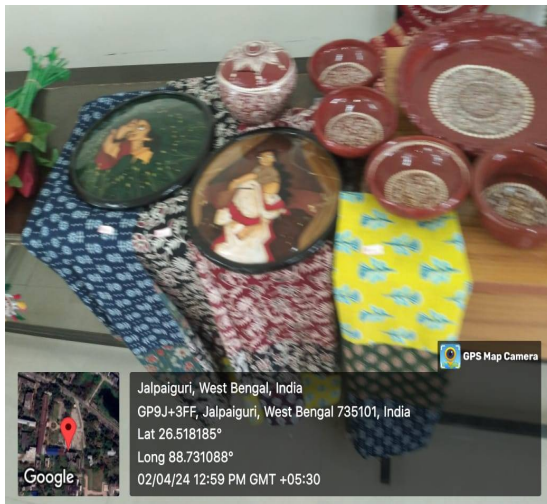

02. 04. 2024

'PRASANNADEB WOMEN'S COLLEGE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION' Organised an Art and Crafts exhibition on 02.04.24 at the College premises to provide limitless opportunities for the creative minds. It was an initiative to bring forth the innate skills and talent of our alumni. Our alumni presented many creative ideas, which left all the viewers dumb-struck and full of praise for their talent on display. The exhibition provided the right platform for alumni to showcase their varied and beautiful articles and to interact with the present students of the college and encourage them to come forward to showcase their hidden talents.

The art room was abuzz with excitement and fervour as it showcased the handicrafts of our alumni. The display ranged from pencil shading, glass painting, stitching, origami, embroidery, making designs on plates, kettles, splashes of vibrant hues, paper flowers, jewelleryes, and eco-friendly material, which bring out the best creativity of our alumni.

The Principal, Dr. Samapti Saha, along with other senior faculty members applauded the alumni for their creative flair, as such exhibitions motivate and instil confidence in young minds. The visitors were delighted to watch these colourful displays. The exhibition was well attended and received feedback from the visitors.

Manisha Biswas, Kanika Das, Avishikta Roy, Poulami Talukdar were some of the alumni who joined in this exhibition.
