With the collective cooperation of the teachers, alumni and the students of the P. D. Women’s College, daily essential food items were handed over to some marginalized families of Ward No. 8 of Jalpaiguri city. They had also transferred Rs. 3000 from their accumulated relief fund to tabla artist Shri Subrata Biswas who was suffering from incurable disease. Some of these students of P. D. Women's college had also taken a program to stand by the side of humanity by donating some money every month through a what's app group during the covid period.

Former and current students of Prasannadeb Women's College came forward to pay their respects to Devi Paksha. No, not by setting up an idol of Maa Durga in a mandap, but by putting a smile on the faces of distressed mothers and children, by handing them new puja clothes, all these students indulged in the worship of Maa Devi. Students scattered in different cities with the determination to become people and stand by people have tried to stand by people several times by saving Rs. 200/- each in a bank account every month.

It started from the beginning of the covid-19 epidemic. With the financial donation of the students, new clothes were handed over to children and mothers in Jalpaiguri Vivekananda Palli and Bala Para today. The names of all the students who have extended their financial support in this great initiative are-

Moumita Choudhury

(Delhi), Victoria Ray (Kolkata), Namitha Sarkar (Maynaguri), Soumyasree Gauswamy (Jalpaiguri), Priya Sarkar Pal (Malda), Devayani Barman (Ghazal), Bhaswati Ray (Jalpaiguri), Monalisa Mandal (Cooch Behar), Shudhanta Sarkar, Priya Sen, Rimpa mandal (Jalpaiguri), Mamita Dey Das (Lataguri), Sayantani Mitra Sarkar, Sampita Khashkhal, Ria Sarkar, Snigdha Ray, Mistu Banerjee, Sharmistha Ghosh, Shayani Ray

(Jalpaiguri) and others.

Alumni of Prasannadeb Women's College, Jalpaiguri, raised a fund by depositing some amount every month and distributed winter clothes among the poor village dwellers of Mandalghat, Nandanpur.

Relief materials were distributed from the relief fund collected by the combined efforts of the current and former students of Prasannadeb Women's College. They came forward with the pledge to stand by people during calamities. A total of 50 people in five forest settlements scattered from Shipchu to Jhalong to Paren were given relief. The collective efforts of the students from 1996 to 2020, Jalpaiguri Welfare and Forest Department staff, this great initiative had come to a success. Kudos to all the students who came forward and stood by the people during the disaster.

Prasannadeb Women's College Alumni came forward and handed over the text books to a class IX girl and handed over a room heater to a bedridden patient.
